

COMPLETE CATALOG OF

CLASSIC REPRINTS

Classic Reprints, an imprint of Vance Publications, reprints old and rare books and journal articles that are considered profitable for scholarly research. Most of the works selected for reprint are from the nineteenth century, and have therefore been out of print for many years. All books and articles are digitally reproduced “as is”—nothing has been altered or updated. The reader should note, however, that the quality of the finished copy ultimately depends on the quality of the original, which in some cases is a well-worn book or journal or a microfilm copy of the same. The opinions expressed by each individual author are not necessarily those of Vance Publications. All books are reproduced one original page per page (not two pages sideways) in a slightly enlarged 8.5 x 11 size. Books over 250 pages are bound with a hardcover binding and endsheets. Books under 250 pages are bound with a plastic comb binding. Either way, the title and author of the book appear on the spine. All books are shipped postage paid.

VANCE PUBLICATIONS
P.O. Box 780671 Orlando, FL 32878
Website: www.vancepublications.com
E-mail: vancepub@vancepublications.com

Classic Reprints No. 1

The Influence of the English Bible upon the English Language and upon English and American Literature
Oscar Joseph
1935

22 pages

$10.00

Prepared in 1935 on the commemoration of four hundred years of the printed English Bible, this work surveys the influence of the English Bible on writers such as Shakespeare, Shelley, Burns, Coleridge, Tennyson, Dickens, and Poe.

Classic Reprints No. 2

An Epistle to the Learned Nobilitie of England. Touching Translating the Bible from the Original, with Ancient Warrant for Everie Worde, unto the Full Satisfaction of Any That be of Hart

Hugh Broughton

1597

60 pages

$10.00

Hugh Broughton (1549-1612), a famed English Hebrew scholar, is most remembered for his attacks on the King James Bible when it was first published. This "epistle" was written before the translators were selected, and after Broughton had left England for the Continent.

Classic Reprints No. 3

The Evidence of Greek Papyri with Regard to Textual Criticism

Frederick G. Kenyon

1904

28 pages

$10.00

Well known for his writings on the textual criticism of the New Testament, Frederick Kenyon here discusses the relation of the Greek papyri discovered in Egypt to the textual criticism of classical Greek authors.

Classic Reprints No. 4

A Sermon on Christian Baptism, With Many Quotations from Pedobaptist Authors. To Which Are Added a Letter of the Church in Plymouth, Mass.; and an Address on the Mode of Baptizing

Adoniram Judson

Fifth American Edition

1846

116 pages

$15.00

Adoniram Judson (1788-1850) is well known as the great Baptist missionary to Burma. What is not so well known, however, is that he left for the mission field a Congregationalist and came back a Baptist. While on his voyage, he changed his views on the mode and subjects of baptism and was later baptized. This sermon was first preached on September 27, 1812, in Calcutta, India. This fifth American edition was the last revised and enlarged by the author.

Classic Reprints No. 5

The Immaculate Conception

George W. Samson

1857

24 pages

$10.00

Reprinted from The Christian Review, this article by the Baptist minister George Samson presents what the Bible says about Mary followed by an examination of the Roman Catholic teachings about Mary's virginity, maternity, sinfulness, and conception.

Classic Reprints No. 6

The Vowel-Points Controversy in the XVI. and XVII. Centuries

Bernhard Pick

1892

24 pages

$10.00

Reprinted from Hebraica, a journal in the interests of Semitic study, this is a study of the debate in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries over the origin of the vowel points in the Massoretic Hebrew text.

Classic Reprints No. 7

History of the Printed Editions of the Old Testament, together with a Description of the Rabbinic and Polyglot Bibles

Bernhard Pick

1892-1893

70 pages

$10.00

Reprinted from Hebraica, a journal in the interests of Semitic study, this is a comprehensive history of the printed text of the Old Testament beginning with the first complete Hebrew Bible in 1488.

Classic Reprints No. 8

The Scriptural Anthropology

George Boardman

1867

47 pages

$10.00

Originally appearing in The Baptist Quarterly, this series of three articles by the nineteenth-century Baptist minister George Boardman explore the nature of man as it relates to his body, soul, and spirit.

Classic Reprints No. 9

Authorship and Introduction to the Epistle of Jude
Eugene Arnaud
1858-1861
60 pages
$10.00

Translated from the French by Edward C. Mitchell, and originally appearing in The Christian Review, this is one of the most exhaustive studies of the authorship of the New Testament epistle of Jude ever written.

Classic Reprints No. 10

The Great “She” Bible
Walter E. Smith
1890
31 pages
$10.00

Originally appearing in The Library, this series of three articles is an authoritative history of the second issue of the 1611 King James Bible, commonly called the “she” Bible.

Classic Reprints No. 11

Unitarianism
Edward B. Smith
1857-1858
66 pages
$10.00

Originally appearing in The Christian Review, this series of two articles by the nineteenth-century Baptist minister Edward Smith is both a refutation of Unitarianism and a defense of the deity of Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit.

Classic Reprints No. 12

The Early Printed Editions of the Greek Testament
Cuthbert Hamilton Turner
1924
28 pages
$10.00

Focusing mainly on the text of Erasmus, this is a brief history of the early printed editions of the Greek New Testament.

Classic Reprints No. 13

The “Authorised Version” and Its Influence
Albert S. Cook
1910
30 pages
$10.00

A study by an English professor of the literary character of the Authorized Version and its influence on the English language. Originally written as a chapter for volume IV of The Cambridge History of English Literature.

Classic Reprints No. 14

Religious Persecution in Virginia
George E. Dabney
1858
46 pages
$10.00

Originally appearing in The Christian Review, this series of two articles by the nineteenth-century Baptist minister George Dabney is a concise history of the religious persecution of Baptists in Virginia in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries.

Classic Reprints No. 15

Baptists and Liberty of Conscience
Henry C. Vedder
1884
58 pages
$10.00

Originally appearing in The Baptist Quarterly Review, this series of three articles by the nineteenth-century Baptist minister and historian Henry Vedder examines the preeminent role of English Baptists in the struggle for religious liberty during the period from Henry VIII to the Act of Toleration (1500-1689).

Classic Reprints No. 16

Essay on the Right Estimation of Manuscript Evidence in the Text of the New Testament
Thomas Rawson Birks
1878
138 pages
$15.00

Written while the Revised Version was being translated, this book is a scathing critique of the principles of textual criticism then in vogue—principles still followed today by translators of modern Bible versions.

Classic Reprints No. 17

John Wycliffe
Daniel Curry and C. E. Barrows
1853, 1879
69 pages
$10.00

Two nineteenth-century Baptist ministers each provide concise yet supplementary biographies of John Wycliffe and his role in translating the Bible into English.

Classic Reprints No. 18
Deliver Us From Evil
Frederick C. Cook
1881-1882
126 pages
$15.00

Written by an Anglican scholar in the form of two letters addressed to the bishop of London, this is an extremely detailed study of the change in the last petition of the “Lord’s Prayer” adopted in the Revised Version. Cook’s work is just as relevant today as the day it was written since most modern versions of the Bible also change the phrase “deliver us from evil” (Mat. 6:13) as it appears in the Authorized Version.

Classic Reprints No. 19
Cardinal Ximenes: Statesman, Ecclesiastic, Soldier, and Man of Letters, with an Account of the Complutensian Polyglot Bible
James P. R. Lyell
1917
142 pages
$15.00

The life of Cardinal Ximenes, editor of the Complutensian Polyglot Bible, published in 1522, with an account of that version. Illustrated with fourteen plates, and supplemented by a listing of existing copies of the Complutensian Polyglot.

Classic Reprints No. 20
Baptists and the Reformation
Philip S. Moxom, et al.
1877-1891
160 pages
$15.00

A compilation of articles by six nineteenth-century Baptist ministers on the history, theology, and personalities of the Reformation from a Baptist point of view. Includes articles on Thomas Munzer, Henry III, Zwingli, and Balthazar Hubmeyer, as well as articles on Protestant theology in general and Luther’s theology in particular.

Classic Reprints No. 21
A Study of the Inquisition
J. C. Fernald
1881
25 pages
$10.00

Reprinted from The Baptist Review, this article by the Baptist minister J. C. Fernald is a brief study of the origin, practices, and demise of the Inquisition.

Classic Reprints No. 22
Baptism for the Dead
S. W. Whitney, et al.
1852-1884
76 pages
$10.00

A compilation of articles by five nineteenth-century Baptist ministers on the highly-controversial Mormon proof-text “baptized for the dead” in 1 Corinthians 15:29.

Classic Reprints No. 23
Spirit, Soul, and Flesh
Ernest DeWitt Burton
1918
214 pages
$25.00

Originally appearing as a series of articles in the American Journal of Theology from 1913-1916, and then reprinted in 1918 with additions and revisions by the author, this is the definitive study of the usage of πνεῦμα, ψυχή, and σάρξ (spirit, soul, and flesh) in the New Testament, other Greek writings, and translated works from the earliest period to 180 A.D., and of their equivalents in the Hebrew Old Testament.

Classic Reprints No. 24
The Rise of the Use of Pouring and Sprinkling for Baptism
Norman Fox
1882
33 pages
$10.00

Reprinted from The Baptist Review, this article by the nineteenth-century Baptist minister Norman Fox is a study of when, why, and how pouring and sprinkling for baptism came to be used instead of immersion.

Classic Reprints No. 25
Luther and His Bible
Edward Rhiem and L. Franklin Gruber
1884, 1923
44 pages
$10.00

Two articles on Luther and his Bible. The first is an analysis of Luther as a Bible translator and the effect of his Bible on the German language. It is translated from the German, and originally appeared in The Baptist Quarterly Review. The second is a quadricentennial study of Luther’s New Testament reprinted from Bibliotheca Sacra.

Classic Reprints No. 26

Thomas Aquinas
Richard M. Nott
1882
41 pages
$10.00

Originally appearing in The Baptist Review, this series of two articles by the nineteenth-century Baptist minister Richard Nott is an account of the life and legacy of the Roman Catholic theologian Thomas Aquinas from a Baptist point of view.

Classic Reprints No. 27

Ignatius Loyola and the Jesuits
J. R. Henderson, et al.
1841, 1843, 1884
92 pages
$10.00

A compilation of articles by three nineteenth-century Baptist ministers on the history, principles, and policies of the Roman Catholic order of the Jesuits, and their founder, Ignatius Loyola.

Classic Reprints No. 28

Infant Baptism an Invention of Men
Irah Chase
1863
272 pages
$35.00

First published by the American Baptist Publication Society, this exhaustive treatise on baptism was originally written as a reply to the baptismal views of Horace Bushnell. Includes additional articles on Origen's testimony respecting the baptism of children and on baptism for the dead.

Classic Reprints No. 29

A Critical History of the Text of the New Testament; Wherein is Firmly Established the Truth of Those Acts on Which the Foundation of Christian Religion is Laid
Richard Simon
Parts One and Two in One Volume 1689
369 pages
$50.00

Richard Simon (1638-1712), a French Catholic scholar, was called the "father of biblical criticism." His critical views of the text of the Bible anticipated the views of German rationalists many years later. Simon's work is being reprinted for its historical value rather than in defense of his opinions.

Classic Reprints No. 30

Peter and the Papacy
George Samson, et al.
1851-1882
79 pages
$10.00

A compilation of articles by four nineteenth-century Baptist ministers on Peter and the Papacy. Includes articles on the relation of Peter to the Church of Rome, Peter's confession, the temporal power of the popes, and papal infallibility.

Classic Reprints No. 31

The Royal "Injunctions" of 1538 and the "Great Bible," 1539-1541
Henry Guppy
1938
47 pages
$10.00

Written by the noted former librarian of the John Rylands library of the University of Manchester, and reprinted by special permission, this article was written on the occasion of the four hundredth anniversaries of two memorable events in the history of the English Bible: the royal injunctions of 1538 authorizing "one book of the whole Bible," and the publication of the Great Bible in 1539. Illustrated with seven plates, including a likeness of Miles Coverdale.

Classic Reprints No. 32

William Tyndale and the English Bible
Henry Guppy
1925, 1936
66 pages
$10.00

Written by the noted former librarian of the John Rylands library of the University of Manchester, and reprinted by special permission, this book includes two articles on William Tyndale and the English Bible. The first is a brief sketch of the life of Tyndale written on the occasion of the four hundredth anniversary of his death. The second is an account of Tyndale and his Bible and those who translated the Bible into English before him. Illustrated with twelve plates, including a likeness of Tyndale.

Classic Reprints No. 33
Exposition of Romans 7:7-25
W. N. Clarke
1875
27 pages
$10.00
Reprinted from The Baptist Quarterly, this article by the nineteenth-century Baptist minister W. N. Clarke is a detailed exposition of a difficult passage in the Apostle Paul's epistle to the Romans.

Classic Reprints No. 34
Adam and Christ
A. C. Kendrick, et al.
1848-1885
91 pages
$10.00
A compilation of articles by five nineteenth-century Baptist ministers on the relation between Adam and Christ as presented by the Apostle Paul in Romans 5:12-21.

Classic Reprints No. 35
The Old-Fashioned Bible, or Ten Reasons Against the Proposed Baptist Version of the New Testament
John Dowling
1850
36 pages
$10.00
A defense of the Authorized Version of the Bible by a nineteenth-century Baptist minister against a proposed Baptist version.

Classic Reprints No. 36
A Vindication of our Authorized Translation and Translators of the Bible
John Henry Todd
1819
158 pages
$15.00
A defense of the Authorized Version of the Bible by a nineteenth-century Anglican scholar against two critics in favor of a new translation.

Classic Reprints No. 37
Struggles and Triumphs of Religious Liberty: An Historical Survey of Controversies Pertaining to the Rights of Conscience, From the English Reformation to the Settlement of New England
Edward B. Underhill
1851
248 pages
$25.00
An exhaustive historical account of the development of religious liberty in England and the role of the Baptists, Puritans, Brownists, and Independents. The author concludes that the Baptists stood alone among their contemporaries for liberal and enlightened views of religious liberty.

Classic Reprints No. 38
Immersion Essential to Christian Baptism
John A. Broadus
1892
66 pages
$10.00
A detailed treatise on the mode of baptism by the distinguished nineteenth-century Baptist minister John Broadus.

Classic Reprints No. 39
Mohammed and Mohammedism
Enoch Pond, et al.
1840, 1877
40 pages
$10.00
Two articles on the founder, history, and doctrines of Mohammedism by two nineteenth-century Baptist ministers.

Classic Reprints No. 40
The Baptist Reply to James Dale on Baptism
A. C. Kendrick, et al.
1869-1879
117 pages
$15.00
Presbyterian minister James Dale (1812-1881) authored what has been considered by pedobaptists to be the definitive work on the mode of baptism. In his five volumes on baptism, numbering over 1800 pages (Classic Baptism [1867], Judaic Baptism [1869], Johanneic Baptism [1871], Christic Baptism [1874], and Patristic Baptism [1874]), Dale is credited with proving, against the Baptists, that Christian baptism could not be by immersion. Because Dale's volumes were reprinted in the 1990s, it is essential that the Baptist reply to Dale, written during the period 1869-1879, likewise be reprinted. This collection of articles is both a devastating critique of Dale and a treatise on scriptural baptism. Also included are two reviews critical of Dale by writers for two pedobaptist publications.

Classic Reprints No. 41
Which Version? Authorized or Revised?
Philip Mauro
1924
119 pages
$15.00
A defense of the Authorized Version of the Bible by a noted author, written long before the present controversy over Bible versions, that is highly critical of the Revised Version and the textual theories upon which it was based.

Classic Reprints No. 42
Religious Persecution in New England
L. E. Smith, et al.
1838-1876
187 pages
$20.00

A compilation of articles by seven nineteenth-century Baptist ministers on religious persecution in New England during the colonial period from a Baptist point of view. Includes articles on ecclesiastical legislation, the Pilgrims and the Puritans, Roger Williams and John Clarke, and the influence of the Baptists on religious liberty.

Classic Reprints No. 43
The Bogomils of Bulgaria and Bosnia; or The Early Protestants of the East
L. P. Brockett
1879
143 pages
$15.00

An exhaustive history of the churches of Bulgaria, Bosnia, Herzegovina, and Armenia before the Reformation who gave allegiance to neither Constantinople nor Rome. The author concludes that these churches were true successors in all matters of faith and practice of the churches founded by the apostles, and shows their relationship to Baptists.

Classic Reprints No. 44
Notes on the Amended English Bible With Special Reference to Certain Texts in the Revised Version of the Old and New Testaments Bearing upon the Principles of Unitarian Christianity
Henry Ierson
1887
188 pages
$20.00

Originally published by the British and Foreign Unitarian Association, this book was written after the publication of the Revised Version (1885) to show how the corrections to the Authorized Version found in the Revised Version are in line with the principles of Unitarianism. Although written by a Unitarian, and written in favor of the Revised Version, this book is actually an indictment of modern versions of the Bible since they for the most part follow the readings of the Revised Version.

Classic Reprints No. 45
The Old Latin and the Itala
F. C. Burkitt
1896, 1910
150 pages
$15.00

A technical work of textual criticism on Old Latin texts and versions in which it is argued that the Latin version of the Bible mentioned by Augustine under the name of the Itala was the Vulgate of Jerome. Includes two articles by the author from The Journal of Theological Studies in which he replies to his critics and expands his arguments.

Classic Reprints No. 46
Objections to a Baptist Version of the New Testament
William T. Brantly
1837
66 pages
$10.00

Originally appearing in The Christian Review, and then published separately, this is a defense of the Authorized Version of the Bible by a nineteenth-century Baptist minister against a proposed Baptist version. Includes Additional Reasons for Preferring the English Bible as it is, by Octavius Winslow, which was added to the published edition.

Classic Reprints No. 47
The Excellence of the Authorized Version of the Sacred Scriptures
James Lister
1820
32 pages
$10.00
A defense of the Authorized Version of the Bible by an English Baptist minister.

Classic Reprints No. 48
An Apology for the Common English Bible
Arthur Cleveland Coxe
1857
72 pages
$10.00
A defense of the Authorized Version of the Bible by an Episcopalian bishop against the changes made in it by the American Bible Society.

Classic Reprints No. 49
The Matthew and Taverner Bibles
Harold Hutson and Harold R. Willoughby
1938, 1939
31 pages
$10.00
Two articles on the early English Bibles of Thomas Matthew (1537) and Richard Taverner (1539).

Classic Reprints No. 50
The Coverdale Psalter and the Quatrocentenary of the Printed English Bible
Harold R. Willoughby
1935
38 pages
$10.00

Written on the occasion of the four hundredth anniversary of the first translation of the whole Bible into English, this is a detailed study of the Coverdale Bible and Coverdale Psalter, which survives today in the Book of Common Prayer.

Classic Reprints No. 51
A Complete History of the Several Translations of the Holy Bible and New Testament into English, Both in Ms. and in Print: and of the Most Remarkable Editions of Them Since the Invention of Printing
John Lewis
Third Edition
1818
416 pages
$50.00

First published in 1731 and referenced by all later historians of the English Bible, this is a reprint of the first major attempt of an exhaustive history of the English Bible. To this third edition was added a list of various editions of the Bible, and parts thereof, in English from 1526 to 1800.

Classic Reprints No. 52
English Versions of the Bible: A Hand-Book
J. I. Mombert
New and Enlarged Edition
1906
562 pages
$55.00

A reprint of the author's final edition of one of the most detailed and comprehensive histories of the English Bible ever written.

Classic Reprints No. 53
The Works of Francis Fry on the Tyndale, Coverdale, Great, Bishop's, and King James Bibles, With a Brief Memoir of the Author by His Son
Francis Fry
Four Books in One
1865-1887
568 pages
$100.00

The works of the English Bible collector and historian Francis Fry (1803-1886) on the above mentioned English Bibles are considered to be the most meticulous studies ever made. Extremely rare, and never published in America, they are here brought together and prefaced by a brief memoir of the author by his son.

Classic Reprints No. 54
The Burning of the Bibles: Defence of the Protestant Version of the Scriptures Against the Attacks of Popish Apologists
John Dowling
1843
141 pages
$15.00

This book was occasioned by the burning, in 1842, in Champlain, NY, of copies of the Authorized Version of the Bible by Roman Catholics. In this work Baptist minister John Dowling defends the Authorized Version against its Roman Catholic critics while pointing out the errors of the Roman Catholic Bible and the Catholic attitude toward the Bible in general.

Classic Reprints No. 55
Studies on Baptism
C. E. W. Dobbs, et al.
1836-1891
336 pages
$40.00

A compilation of articles by nineteen nineteenth-century Baptist ministers on the subject of baptism. Includes articles on the baptismal controversy, ancient baptisteries, rebaptism, Jewish proselyte baptism, the church fathers and baptism, baptism and remission, the proper mode and subjects of baptism, the administrator of baptism, and the baptismal formula. Taken from The Baptist Quarterly, The Baptist Quarterly Review, and The Christian Review, this compilation of articles comprises one of the most encyclopedic studies of baptism from a Baptist perspective ever assembled.

Classic Reprints No. 56
Infant Baptism, Communion, Church Membership, and Salvation
Henry C. Vedder, et al.
1838-1882
298 pages
$35.00

A compilation of articles by twelve nineteenth-century Baptist ministers on the subject of infant baptism and the related topics of infant communion, infant church membership, and infant salvation. Taken from The Baptist Review, The Baptist Quarterly, and The Christian Review, this compilation of articles comprises one of the most encyclopedic studies of infant baptism from a Baptist perspective ever assembled.

Classic Reprints No. 57

The History of Romanism: from the Earliest Corruptions of Christianity; with Chronological Table, Indexes, Glossary, and Numerous Illustrative Engravings

John Dowling

A New Edition, with Two Supplements Continuing the History from the Accession of Pope Pius IX. to his Proclamation of Papal Infallibility, and his Deposition as a Temporal Sovereign, A.D. 1870. To which is Added in the Present Edition a Third Supplement, Bringing the Work Down to the Beginning of the Year 1881, by a Well-Known American Historian.

1881

1044 pages

$100.00

John Dowling (1807-1878) was a Baptist minister in the Northeast from the time he arrived from England in 1832 until his death at Middletown, New York, on July 4. This mammoth book is the most comprehensive and exhaustive history of Roman Catholicism ever penned. First published in 1845, this is the final edition that was published after the death of the author. The work is divided into nine books, each with several chapters, describing Popery 1. In embryo, A.D. 33–606, 2. At its birth, 606, 3. Advancing, 606–800, 4. In its glory, 800–1073, 5. The world's despot, 1073–1303, 6. On a tottering throne, 1303–1545, 7. At Trent, 1545–1563, 8. Drunk with the blood of the saints, 1563–1685, 9. In its dotage, 1785–1845. An analytical table of contents encompassing twenty pages provides a detailed overview of all the books, chapters, sections, supplements, and appendix of the work. This is further supplemented by an index, chronological table, and glossary. The book is enhanced throughout by forty-eight engravings illustrating Roman Catholic ceremonies, superstitions, persecutions, and historical incidents. To all this is added testimonials from all Protestant denominations selected from notices of the original edition. This reprint edition also includes a brief biographical sketch of the author and a review of the first edition that appeared in The Christian Review.

Classic Reprints No. 58

The Origin, Persecutions, and Doctrines of the Waldenses

Pius Melia

1870

154 pages

$15.00

This book is a history of the ancient Waldenses in three parts: their origin, their persecutions, and their doctrines. It relies heavily on many original documents in addition to interacting with the standard works on the Waldenses.

Classic Reprints No. 59

Israel and the Church

by James H. Brookes

c. 1890

199 pages

$20.00

James Brookes (1830-1897) was a Presbyterian pastor and Bible teacher who advocated premillennialism and dispensationalism during the latter part of the nineteenth century. It was he who influenced C. I. Scofield, the editor of the popular Scofield Reference Bible first published in 1909. This work by Brookes carefully distinguishes between Israel and the Church and demonstrates by Scripture that the Old and New Testaments represent two entirely distinct and different dispensations of God's dealings with his people.

Classic Reprints No. 60

Hebraisms in the Authorized Version of the Bible

William Rosenau

1903

283 pages

$35.00

Originally presented as the author's thesis at Johns Hopkins University (1900), this book contains an examination of the Hebrew influence on the language of the Authorized Version. In addition to chapters on Hebraisms, other chapters include "Proverbial Biblical Passages in Use," "Biblical Expressions in English Literature," and "Difference Between Hebraisms and English Archaisms."

Classic Reprints No. 61

A Critical History of the Old Testament

Richard Simon

Parts One, Two, and Three in One Volume

The first part treating at large concerning the several authors of the Bible. The second containing the history of the chief translations of the Bible, made either by Jews or Christians. The third laying down rules whereby a more exact translation may be made of the Scripture than hitherto has been.

1682

635 pages

$65.00

Richard Simon (1638-1712), a French Catholic scholar, was called the "father of biblical criticism." His critical views of the text of the Bible anticipated the views of German rationalists many years later. Simon's work is being reprinted for its historical value rather than in defense of his opinions.

Classic Reprints No. 62
Tischendorf and Tregelles
Ezra Abbot
1875
34 pages
$10.00

Brief biographical sketches of Lobegott Friedrich Constantin Tischendorf (1815-1874) and Samuel Prideaux Tregelles (1813-1875), two of the leading Greek scholars and textual critics of the nineteenth century. What is unique about these sketches, written soon after the deaths of Tischendorf and Tregelles, is that they were written by Ezra Abbot (1819-1884), who was not only a contemporary, but a fellow Greek scholar and textual critic.

Classic Reprints No. 63
Historical Vindications: A Discourse on the Province and Uses of Baptist History
Sewall S. Cutting
1859
224 pages
$25.00

Originally delivered before the Backus Historical Society, at Newton, Mass., June 23, 1857, and repeated before the American Baptist Historical Society, at New York, May 14, 1859, this discourse on Baptist history by Sewall Cutting (1813-1882), the one-time Professor of Rhetoric and History in the University of Rochester, was augmented for publication with appendixes on baptism, Baptist confessions, and the name "Baptists." Includes the complete text of the Philadelphia Confession of Faith and the Discipline Adopted by the Philadelphia Association.

Classic Reprints No. 64
The Popular History of the Translation of the Holy Scriptures into the English Tongue
Thomas J. Conant
Revised Edition
1881
295 pages
$35.00

Originally written by Mrs. Hannah Conant in 1856, this revised edition was authored by her husband, Thomas J. Conant (1802-1891), one of the premier Baptist scholars of the nineteenth century. Dr. Conant was active in the Bible revision efforts of the American Bible Union. The unique contribution of this work to English Bible history is that it gives the subject a Baptist perspective not commonly found in works of this nature.

Classic Reprints No. 65
A Century of Bibles, or the Authorized Version from 1611 to 1711
William. J. Loftie
1872
257 pages
$35.00

A detailed history of the first hundred years of the Authorized Version of the Bible—its editions, printings, and printing errors. The author also includes the complete text of the 1659 work by William Kilburne titled Dangerous Errors in Several Late Printed Bibles: To the Great Scandal and Corruption of Sound and True Religion.

Classic Reprints No. 66
Desiderius Erasmus
Robert Falconer, et. al
1858, 1862, 1936, 1937
102 pages
$15.00

Five articles on life, character, writings, and literary influence of Erasmus of Rotterdam (1466-1536), the editor of the first published edition of the Greek New Testament. Three articles were written on the occasion of the four hundredth anniversary of his death.

Classic Reprints No. 67
A Defense of the Reading "Only Begotten Son" in John 1:18
Ezra Abbot
1856, 1861, 1875
80 pages
$10.00

Three extremely detailed articles by the Greek scholar and textual critic Ezra Abbot (1819-1884) defending the reading "only begotten Son" in John 1:18 of the Authorized Version.

Classic Reprints No. 68
A Defense of the Reading "God Was Manifest in the Flesh" in 1 Timothy 3:16
Ebenezer Henderson and Moses Stuart
1832
80 pages
$10.00

Long before Dean Burgon (1813-1888) defended the genuineness of the reading "God Was Manifest in the Flesh" in 1 Timothy 3:16, as it appears in the Authorized Version, these two scholars had already done so in the pages of the Congregational magazine The Biblical Repository. Yet, all critical Greek texts and most modern versions of the Bible still reject the genuineness of this reading in 1 Timothy 3:16.

Classic Reprints No. 69

A Review of Professor Stuart on Christian Baptism

Willard Judd

1836

371 pages

$40.00

Before the Presbyterian scholar James Dale (1812-1881) wrote his five volumes in defense of infant baptism by sprinkling, the Congregationalists had Moses Stuart (1780-1852). Stuart, a professor at Andover Theological Seminary, was the premier Pedobaptist scholar of his day. In the pages of Andover's The Biblical Repository, he wrote a lengthy treatise on baptism in 1833 called "Is the Manner of Christian Baptism Prescribed in the New Testament?" Stuart's work was in the same year published separately as a small book. But like the works of Dale, the Baptists likewise answered the work of Stuart. The first to do so was Willard Judd (1804-1840), who issued a reply in the New York Baptist Register, which was later expanded into the book reprinted here. This edition of Judd's work is enhanced by the addition of the complete text of Stuart's original treatise on baptism, a brief biographical sketch of Stuart by the Baptist Alvah Hovey (1820-1903), who acknowledges Stuart's scholarly abilities, a lengthy biographical sketch of the author by Orrin B. Judd (1816-1892), and an introductory essay to Stuart's work by the Baptist J. R. Graves (1820-1893), who republished Stuart's work in 1855, not "for the sake of Prof. Stuart's reasonings, but for the authorities and facts which he submits." Graves considered Stuart's "admissions, his facts and authorities" to be "conclusively in favor of the Baptists; while his reasonings, or rather inferences, are in favor of Pedobaptists, and characteristically Pedobaptistic."

Classic Reprints No. 70

The Authorship of the Fourth Gospel: External Evidences

Ezra Abbot

1880

106 pages

$15.00

An exhaustive defense of the Johannine authorship of the fourth Gospel by the Unitarian scholar Ezra Abbot (1819-1884). This edition is augmented by a brief biographical sketch of Abbot and a prefatory note by the author.

Classic Reprints No. 71

Christianity and War

Veritatis Amans, et al.

1838, 1847

24 pages

$10.00

Two timely articles on Christianity and War by two nineteenth-century Baptist ministers.

Classic Reprints No. 72

The Bibles of England: A Plain Account for Plain People of the Principal Versions of the Bible in English

Andrew Edgar

1889

414 pages

$45.00

An account of the history of the principal versions of the English Bible that focuses on "the differentiations of successive versions, and the literary peculiarities that in each translation may be supposed most readily to attract the notice of common English readers."

Classic Reprints No. 73

The Annals of the English Bible

Christopher Anderson

New and Revised Edition

1862

746 pages

$75.00

A reprint of the author's final edition of one of the most detailed and comprehensive histories of the English Bible ever written. Includes a lengthy preface and introduction, a very detailed table of contents and index, and a list of various editions of the New Testament and the Bible in English.

Classic Reprints No. 74

Our Own English Bible

W. J. Heaton

Three Volumes in One

1913, 1914

986 pages

$100.00

Includes the third edition of Our Own English Bible: Its Translators and Their Work, The Manuscript Period, the third edition of The Bible of the Reformation, and The Puritan Bible, and Other Contemporaneous Protestant Versions. All volumes contain numerous illustrations, plates, and facsimiles.

Classic Reprints No. 75

Our English Bible: Its Translations and Translators

John Stoughton

c. 1881

317 pages

$40.00

This history of the English Bible is the fruit of the author's forty years of research on the subject.

Classic Reprints No. 76

An Authentic Account of Our Authorized Translation of the Holy Bible, and of the Translators: with Testimonies to the Excellence of the Translation

Henry John Todd

1834

68 pages

$10.00

This defense of the Authorized Version of the Bible by a nineteenth-century Anglican scholar is a sequel to his earlier work titled A Vindication of our Authorized Translation and Translators of the Bible, published in 1819.

Classic Reprints No. 77

Middle East Diary 1917-1956

Colonel Richard Meinertzhagen

1960

387 pages

$40.00

The Englishman Richard Meinertzhagen (1878-1967) was a staff officer in East Africa, Palestine, and France during World War I. After the war, he played an important part in the affairs of the Middle East, especially in relation to the Palestine Mandate. Middle East Diary recounts Meinertzhagen's long association with Palestine and Israel from 1917 to the Suez crisis of 1956. Based on extracts from the private diary which he kept, and on a number of letters and documents published for the first time in this book, this is a firsthand account of events and personalities from one who had a strong sympathy towards the Zionist movement. Includes a Chronological Table of Events of Importance for Israel.

Classic Reprints No. 78

The Influence of the Bible on Civilization

Ernst von Dobschutz

1914

224 pages

$25.00

A survey of the Bible's influence on civilization from the beginnings of Christianity to the late nineteenth century. Being a German, the author devotes considerable attention to the influence of the Bible on the pre- and post-Reformation German people. Illustrated with sixteen plates, including the first printed Bible and the first edition of Wycliffe's Bible.

Classic Reprints No. 79

Codex Vaticanus

286 pages

$50.00

Originally published in 1868, this is a reprint of a facsimile of the New Testament of the fourth-century Greek Codex Vaticanus.

Classic Reprints No. 80

Codex Sinaiticus

298 pages

$50.00

Originally published in 1911, this is a reprint of a facsimile of the New Testament of the fourth-century Greek Codex Sinaiticus. Includes a description and introduction to the history of the codex by Kirsopp Lake.

Classic Reprints No. 81

The English Bible

John Eadie

Two Volumes in One

1876

975 pages

$100.00

A reprint of the largest history of the English Bible ever written.

Classic Reprints No. 82

The History of Baptism

Robert Robinson

1790

669 pages

$65.00

A reprint of the largest history of Baptism from a Baptist perspective ever written.

Classic Reprints No. 83

The Greek New Testament

Hermann Freiherr von Soden

1913

464 pages

$50.00

A reprint of von Soden's Greek New Testament. Includes an introduction in German and a critical apparatus.

Classic Reprints No. 84

The Greek New Testament

F. H. A. Scrivener

Fourth Edition

1906

615 pages

$60.00

Using the 1550 edition of Stephanus as the text, this edition of the Greek New Testament by Scrivener contains an apparatus listing the variations of this text from the texts of other editors. Prefaced by a likeness of Scrivener.

Classic Reprints No. 85
The Greek New Testament
Bonaventura and Abraham Elzevir
First Edition
1624
874 pages
$50.00

A reprint of the first Elzevir edition of the Greek New Testament. Because the original pages are small, this book is reprinted two original pages per page.

Classic Reprints No. 86
The Greek New Testament
Robert Stephanus
First Edition
1546
898 pages
$50.00

A reprint of the first edition of the Greek New Testament by Robert Stephanus (1503-1559). Prefaced by a likeness of Stephanus. Because the original pages are small, this book is reprinted two original pages per page.

Classic Reprints No. 87
The Greek New Testament
Robert Stephanus
Third Edition
1550
507 pages
$50.00

A reprint of the third edition of the Greek New Testament by Robert Stephanus (1503-1559). Known as the "Royal Edition," this became the standard text in England until the twentieth century. Prefaced by a likeness of Stephanus.

Classic Reprints No. 88
An Introduction to the Textual Criticism of the New Testament
Benjamin B. Warfield
Seventh Edition
1907
231 pages
$25.00

Benjamin Warfield (1851-1921), professor for many years at Princeton Theological Seminary, was one of the leading biblical scholars of his day. This final edition of his work on textual criticism is being reprinted for its historical value rather than in defense of his opinions.

Classic Reprints No. 89
The Greek New Testament
Theodore Beza
1565
1168 pages
$100.00

A reprint of the first edition of the Greek New Testament by Theodore Beza (1519-1605). Includes in parallel columns the Latin Vulgate and Beza's own Latin translation. The bottom of each page also contains extensive notes in Latin. Prefaced by a likeness of Beza.

Classic Reprints No. 90
The Greek New Testament
Desiderius Erasmus
First Edition
1516
583 pages
$60.00

A reprint of the first edition of the Greek New Testament by Desiderius Erasmus (1466-1536). Includes his own Latin translation in a parallel column. Prefaced by a likeness of Erasmus.

Classic Reprints No. 91
The Greek New Testament
Desiderius Erasmus
Third Edition
1522
630 pages
$60.00

A reprint of the third edition of the Greek New Testament by Desiderius Erasmus (1466-1536). Includes his own Latin translation in a parallel column. This is the edition that first included the disputed passage in 1 John 5:7-8. Prefaced by a likeness of Erasmus.

Classic Reprints No. 92
The Design of Baptism, Viewed in its Relation to the Christian Life
Irah Chase
1851
204 pages
$20.00

The first section of this book, from which the title was taken, was first given as an introductory discourse before the Boston Association of Baptist Churches in 1828. This is supplemented by five additional articles on baptism relating to the church father Irenaeus, Edward Robinson's Greek lexicon, the sufficiency of water for baptizing in Palestine, infant baptism, and baptismal regeneration.

Classic Reprints No. 93

The Oxford Debate on the Textual Criticism of the New Testament

Edward Miller, et al.

1897

59 pages

$10.00

The text of a debate held at Oxford on May 6, 1897, between two Anglican clergymen, Edward Miller (1825-1901) and William Sanday (1843-1920), and some others, on the system of textual criticism advocated by the foremost defender of the Traditional Text, Dean Burgon (1813-1888). Includes an explanatory preface by Miller.

Classic Reprints No. 94

The Sum and Substance of the Conference at Hampton Court

William Barlow

1604

114 pages

$15.00

The Hampton Court Conference, held in January of 1604, was the conference between the Puritans and King James and some Anglican clergymen in which the suggestion for a new translation of the Bible was made. The king sanctioned the idea, and the King James Bible was born. This “official” account of the conference was commissioned by Bishop Bancroft (1544-1610) of London a few weeks after the conference closed. It was written by William Barlow (d. 1613), who attended the conference in his capacity as the Dean of Chester, and was published in August of 1604 as The Summe and Substance of the Conference, which, it pleased his Excellent Maiestie to have with the Lords, Bishops, and other of his Clergie, (at which the most of the Lordes of the Councell were present) in his Maiesties Privy-Chamber, at Hampton Court. January 14, 1603. Barlow went on to become one of the translators of the new Bible.

Classic Reprints No. 95

The Constitution of the Confederate States of America vs. The Constitution of the United States

1789, 1861

20 pages

$10.00

The complete text of the Confederate Constitution and the U.S. Constitution in two parallel columns in order to facilitate comparison. Includes a brief preface highlighting the major differences between the two Constitutions.

Classic Reprints No. 96

An Account of the Printed Text of the Greek New Testament

Samuel Prideaux Tregelles

1854

391 pages

$40.00

A history of the printed editions of the Greek New Testament, including those of Erasmus, Stephens, Beza, Elzevir, Mill, Bengel, Griesbach, Lachmann, and Tischendorf. Includes chapters on revision and the principles of textual criticism.

Classic Reprints No. 97

The Greek New Testament

Theodore Beza

1588

1128 pages

$100.00

A reprint of the third edition of the Greek New Testament by Theodore Beza (1519-1605). Includes in parallel columns the Latin Vulgate and Beza’s own Latin translation. The bottom of each page also contains extensive notes in Latin. Prefaced by a likeness of Beza.

Classic Reprints No. 98

The Greek New Testament

Theodore Beza

1598

1183 pages

$100.00

A reprint of the fourth edition of the Greek New Testament by Theodore Beza (1519-1605). Includes in parallel columns the Latin Vulgate and Beza’s own Latin translation. The bottom of each page also contains extensive notes in Latin. Prefaced by a likeness of Beza.

Classic Reprints No. 99

An Historical Account of the Several English Translations of the Bible and the Opposition They Met with from the Church of Rome

Anthony Johnson

1730

110 pages

$15.00

A reprint of one of the oldest extant histories of the English Bible. Because he could not find “any perfect Account of Translations of the Bible into our own National Language,” the author “purposed to collect” what he “had observed to lie scattered up and down in our Historians, and other Writers relating thereunto.”

Classic Reprints No. 100
The Authorization of the English Bible
L. Franklin Gruber, et al.
1881, 1913, 1949, 1991
50 pages
$10.00
Four articles from different perspectives on the subject of the authorization of the English Bible.

Classic Reprints No. 101
The Noblest Monument of English Prose
John L. Lowes
1936
29 pages
$10.00
An essay on the Authorized Version by John L. Lowes (1867-1945), a former professor of English Literature and Senior Fellow at Harvard University.

Classic Reprints No. 102
The Complaint of Peace
Desiderius Erasmus
1521
82 pages
$10.00
In this work, the celebrated Dutch humanist, scholar, and classicist, Desiderius Erasmus (1466-1536), has the personification of peace come to earth to deliver her verdict on the human race. She chastises kings and church leaders, noblemen and ordinary soldiers alike for betraying their Christian values by waging unjust and unnecessary wars.

Classic Reprints No. 103
Antipolemus; or, the Plea of Reason, Religion, and Humanity, Against War
Desiderius Erasmus
1507
94 pages
$10.00
In this work, the celebrated Dutch humanist, scholar, and classicist, Desiderius Erasmus (1466-1536) examines why Christian nations are constantly at war and draws upon arguments from history, philosophy, and religion to argue that they should cease.

Classic Reprints No. 104
A New Method of Learning with Greater Facility the Greek Tongue
Claude Lancelot
Two Volumes in One 1655
754 pages
$40.00
Translated from the French by Thomas Nugent in 1746, this is a reprint of one of the oldest, and most exhaustive, Greek grammars ever written. This book is reprinted two original pages per page in landscape format.

Classic Reprints No. 105
The Significance of the Lollard Bible
Margaret Deanesly
1951
23 pages
$10.00
This is the Ethel M. Wood lecture on the Wycliffe Bible delivered before the University of London by the Emeritus Professor of History at that university. Deanesly is acknowledged to be a noted scholar of the Wycliffe Bible.

Classic Reprints No. 106
A Dissertation on John 1:18
Fenton John Anthony Hort
1876
84 pages
$10.00
A dissertation by one of the editors of the Westcott and Hort Greek text on the phrase μονογενῆς θεός in John 1:18. Argues against the reading found in the Authorized Version. This dissertation can be considered a counter to the 1861 article of Ezra Abbot, originally published in the Bibliotheca Sacra, and reprinted as part of Classic Reprints No. 67.

Classic Reprints No. 107
The Early Nineteenth Century Baptist Bible Controversy
1837, 1842
24 pages
$10.00
A reprint of an article and two brief "Literary Notices" from The Christian Review about the controversy surrounding proposals for a Baptist version of the Bible. Defends the Authorized Version and argues that a sectarian version called for by some Baptists is unnecessary and unwise.

Classic Reprints No. 108

The Early Christian Attitude to War: A Contribution to the History of Christian Ethics

C. John Cadoux

1919

304 pages

$40.00

This is the definitive study of the early Christian attitude toward war and military service. Although it was written just after World War I, nothing written since then on this important subject is comparable in any way to it. The author states that “the problem of Christianity and war is one that claims serious attention even at ordinary times; and recent events have immeasurably magnified that claim.” Given the violent history of the twentieth century, and the continued participation by Christians in the state’s wars, this book is just as relevant today as when it was written.

Classic Reprints No. 109

The Text of the New Testament

1822

27 pages

$10.00

Reprinted from the North American Review, this is a detailed survey, from the critical text point of view, of the editions of the Greek New Testament from Erasmus to the focus of the article, that of the text of J. J. Griesbach (1745-1812).

Classic Reprints No. 110

Vicesimus Knox on War and Peace

Vicesimus Knox

1793, 1795, c. 1800, 1824

65 pages

$10.00

Vicesimus Knox (1752-1821) was an English minister who ran afoul of the British government because of his sermons opposing war against the French. This reprint consists of the preface and three chapters (X—“When Human Life is held cheap, it is a Symptom of a prevailing Spirit of Despotism,” XVII—“On debauching the Minds of the rising Generation and a whole People, by giving them Military Notions in a free and commercial Country,” XXX—“The Spirit of Despotism delights in War or systematic Murder”) from his 1795 book The Spirit of Despotism, an analysis of how political despotism at home can arise under the cover of fighting a foreign war; the complete text of his 1793 sermon, “The Prospect of Perpetual and Universal Peace to Be Established on the Principles of Christian Philanthropy”; and an essay, “The Folly and Wickedness of War.” Includes also a biographical preface and a likeness of Knox.

Classic Reprints No. 111

A Plain Account of the English Bible

John Henry Blunt

1870

125 pages

$15.00

This brief history of the English Bible, “from the earliest times of its translation to the present day,” is one of the few accounts of this nature written before the advent of the Revised Version. The author closes with a chapter on “Recent Movements for the Revision of the English Bible” in which he states that results of the newly formed revision committee “will have to pass through a severe fire of criticism before it takes its place as a new Authorized Version.”

Classic Reprints No. 112

Our English Bible

The White Lectures

1938

95 pages

$10.00

These six lectures on the English Bible were delivered by various contributors at St. Paul’s Cathedral in London “in view of the commemoration of the Fourth Centenary of the setting up of the Bible in the English language in our parish Churches.” The lectures are prefaced with a Foreword by the Archdeacon of London, who calls the English Bible “the greatest gift of the Reformation to us.”

Classic Reprints No. 113

The English Bible

George P. Marsh

1860

27 pages

$10.00

This essay on the English Bible, which focuses extensively on the Authorized Version, is taken from the author’s Lectures on the English Language.

Classic Reprints No. 114

The State of England: Anno Dom. 1600

Thomas Wilson

1600

54 pages

$10.00

This is a contemporary description of England in 1600 by Thomas Wilson (1560-1629). What makes it so important is that it was written just a few years before the death of Queen Elizabeth when the question of succession to the throne was on the mind of the public. Wilson discusses the twelve competitors for the throne of England, which eventually went to King James VI of Scotland in 1603.

Classic Reprints No. 115

Three Hundred Years of Printing the Bible 1629-1929
1929

31 pages

$10.00

Issued by Cambridge University Press in 1929 to commemorate the tercentenary of the printing of the Authorized Version at Cambridge, this is a brief but official account of the printing of the Authorized Version by Cambridge University Press. Includes a likeness of the title page of the first Cambridge edition of the Authorized Version. To this has been added the related 1936 article “Three Centuries of the English Bible.”

Classic Reprints No. 116

An Argument Sustaining the Common English Version of the Bible

1850

66 pages

$10.00

A defense of the Authorized Version by a group of Baptists “against the project for a revision, as set forth in a pamphlet issued by the Rev. Spencer H. Cone, D.D., and Mr. William H. Wyckoff; embracing the proceedings of a meeting held in the Oliver St. Baptist Church, N. Y., on Thursday evening, April 4, 1850: addressed to the members of the American and Foreign Bible Society, and to the Baptist denomination in the United States.” This is prefaced by “A Brief History of the English Version,” by Christopher Anderson (1782-1852), and “A Letter to Members of Amity St. Baptist Church, N. Y.,” by William R. Williams (1804-1885).

Classic Reprints No. 117

Civil Government: Its Origin, Mission, and Destiny, and the Christian’s Relation to It

David Lipscomb

1889

158 pages

$15.00

Originally published as a series of articles in the Gospel Advocate from 1866 to 1867, this is a very significant work on the Christian’s relation to civil government by the prominent Church of Christ minister, David Lipscomb (1831-1917). Anticipating the arguments of modern libertarian political philosophers, Lipscomb presents a biblical view of a voluntary society. He questions the idea that governments are created for the public good, and argues that peaceful civilization is not dependent on the state. Christians should not participate in politics, but should attempt to persuade people to follow the laws of God rather than using force. This reprint edition includes a foreword by Professor Edward P. Stringham of San Jose State University.

Classic Reprints No. 118

The Reign of Christ on Earth: The Voice of the Church in All Ages, Concerning the Coming and Kingdom of the Redeemer

Daniel T. Taylor

Revised Edition

1882

598 Pages

$60.00

An exhaustive survey of “the doctrine of the personal advent and reign of Christ on earth,” commonly known as premillennialism, throughout church history. Taylor makes the case for the premillennialism of the early church, the decline of the doctrine after Augustine, and its revival after the Reformation. First published in 1855, this is a reprint of the edition revised and edited by H. L. Hastings.

Classic Reprints No. 119

The Elements of Political Economy

Francis Wayland

1841

406 pages

$45.00

Francis Wayland (1796-1865)—an author, a preacher, a teacher, a pastor, and an administrator—was also the author of a major work on economics. Wayland was equally an advocate of liberty, private property, and free trade, and an opponent of war and government intervention in the economy. This edition of Wayland’s The Elements of Political Economy is an exact reproduction of the fourth and last edition of 1841. Although the type has been completely reset (except for the table of contents), this edition corresponds page-for-page with the original work. Wayland’s original spelling has been retained. Nothing has been altered in any way except that the spaces originally inserted before periods, colons, semicolons, and dashes have been eliminated, as have the periods that appeared after titles, subtitles, and headings. This reprint edition includes a foreword by Laurence M. Vance, the editor of the Classic Reprints series and the director of the Francis Wayland Institute.

Classic Reprints No. 120

A Brief Enquiry into the True Nature and Character of Our Federal Government: Being a Review of Judge Story's Commentaries on the Constitution of the United States

Abel Upshur

1840

132 pages

$15.00

Virginian statesman and legal thinker Abel Upshur (1790-1844) was a defender of the Virginian states' rights school of constitutional interpretation. This long-forgotten work, an alternative to nationalist position of John Marshall and Joseph Story, is in the Jeffersonian tradition of John Taylor and St. George Tucker. Upshur's book is not only a point-by-point refutation of Justice Story's immortal Commentaries on the Constitution of the United States (1833), it is a defense of the compact theory that the United States consists of distinct sovereign peoples, organized into distinct states, as opposed to a single, aggregated people. This reprint edition includes a foreword by historian Thomas E. Woods of the Ludwig von Mises Institute in Auburn, Alabama.

Classic Reprints No. 121

The Morality of War

Jonathan Dymond

1896

78 pages

$10.00

Originally published in 1829 after the author's death as part of Essays on the Principles of Morality and on the Private and Political Rights and Obligations of Mankind, this excerpt from the essay on "Political Rights and Obligations" is on the causes, consequences, and lawfulness of war, along with comments on the probable practical effects of adhering to the moral law in respect to war. Dymond (1796-1828) was a member of the Society of Friends.

Classic Reprints No. 122

The Baptists in the Building of the Nation

B. F. Riley

1922

169 pages

$15.00

Subtitled A Narrative of the Chief Contributions made by Baptists to the Erection of Our Democracy and to the Promotion of its Development, this is a unique work of Baptist history by Benjamin Franklin Riley (1849-1925), the author of numerous works on Baptist history. Includes the original introduction by J. B. Gambrell (1841-1921), the president of the Southern Baptist Convention at the time the book was written.

Classic Reprints No. 123

The True Office of Civil Government

Gerrit Smith

1851

30 pages

$10.00

This is a reprint of the text of a speech delivered in Troy, New York, on April 14, 1851, and published soon afterward. Smith advocates a limited government that provides protection to its citizens from crimes—and nothing else. Among other things, he makes powerful arguments against slavery, public education, and tariffs.

Classic Reprints No. 124

The Book of Peace: A Collection of Essays on War and Peace

The American Peace Society

1845

606 pages

$60.00

This is a collection of sixty-four essays by a variety of authors and from a wide range of viewpoints on the subjects of war and peace. According to the preface, "There has been, since the time of the gifted Erasmus, a great deal of eloquent writing on Peace; and the following pages contain the best productions on the subject not only of past ages, but of our own." Although written over 150 years ago, these essays on war and peace are extremely relevant given world conditions today.

Classic Reprints No. 125

The Origin of the Civil War

Robert L. Dabney

1890

21 pages

$10.00

Robert L. Dabney (1829-1898) was a noted Southern Presbyterian theologian and seminary professor who served as a chaplain for the Confederate Army during the Civil War. This is a reprint of two of his articles on the origin of the Civil War.

Classic Reprints No. 126

On the Rendering into English of the Greek Aorist and Perfect

Richard Francis Weymouth

1890

56 pages

$10.00

Richard Francis Weymouth (1822-1902) was a noted Greek scholar, Bible translator, and editor of the Resultant Greek Testament. In this work, which originally appeared in the Theological Monthly, Weymouth examines how the Greek aorist and perfect tenses are best translated into English. Includes an appendix on the New Testament use of gar and oun.

Classic Reprints No. 127
A Christian View of Armed Warfare
William Paul
1969
116 pages
$15.00

This Bible-based, exhaustive study of Christian participation in war contains two parts: "New Testament Teaching on Christians Participating in War" and "Common Objections to Christians Not Participating in War." The author's purpose is "to present plain teaching from the New Testament concerning a Christian's relationship to carnal warfare." Includes a Scripture index.

Classic Reprints No. 128
A Dissertation Concerning the Antiquity of the Hebrew Language, Letters, Vowel Points, and Accents
John Gill
1767
325 pages
$40.00

The title of this reprint by John Gill (1697-1771), one of the greatest scholars the Baptists ever had, sums up the contents of the work. Contrary to most modern Hebrew scholars, Gill argues for the divine origin of the Hebrew vowel points.

Classic Reprints No. 129
A Northern Defense of Secession and Rejection of the Civil War
George W. Bassett
1861
50 pages
$10.00

Not all northerners rejected secession and supported the so-called Civil War. The fact that Lincoln jailed northern opponents of the war proves this is so. This is a reprint of two works written near the beginning of the Civil War by the northern Congregational minister George W. Bassett (1812-1880): A Northern Plea for the Right of Secession and A Discourse on the Wickedness and Folly of the Present War.

Classic Reprints No. 130
John T. Flynn on Roosevelt and Pearl Harbor
John T. Flynn
1944, 1945
65 pages
$10.00

Journalist, author, and popular economic and political commentator John T. Flynn (1882-1964) supported Roosevelt during the election of 1932 as a partisan Democrat and progressive. Twenty years later he was an Old Right supporter of Robert Taft and a defender of Joe McCarthy who foresaw the coming of the Cold War and the Vietnam War. In between Flynn became disillusioned with Roosevelt and harshly criticized the New Deal. He was the chairman of the New York chapter of the America First Committee and an outspoken anti-interventionist who was forsaken by liberals for his principled stance against U.S. intervention in World War II. But Flynn also rejected the Cold War conservatism of William F. Buckley and National Review. He considered militarism a "job-making boondoggle." World War II was a repetition of World War I, a fight between empires, and all about imperialism. Reprinted here are two pamphlets Flynn privately printed after they first appeared in the Chicago Daily Tribune: The Truth About Pearl Harbor and The Final Secret of Pearl Harbor. Both point out the duplicity and culpability of Roosevelt regarding the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor. Also included are images of eight World War II Pearl Harbor propaganda posters that bid Americans to "Avenge Pearl Harbor" or "Remember Pearl Harbor." This reprint edition includes a foreword by Laurence M. Vance, the editor of the Classic Reprints series and the director of the Francis Wayland Institute, and is prefaced by a likeness of Flynn.

Classic Reprints No. 131
An Address on War
Alexander Campbell
1848

41 pages
$10.00
Reprinted from the Millennial Harbinger, this address on war by Alexander Campbell (1788-1866), originally delivered at Wheeling, Virginia, in 1848, was printed in the Congressional Record in 1937 at the request of Representative Joseph B. Shannon (D-MO). Also includes another address on war by Tolbert Fanning (1810-1874), a disciple of Campbell, reprinted from an 1847 issue of the Christian Review.

Classic Reprints No. 132
Can a Christian Kill for His Government?
Bennie Lee Fudge
1943
64 pages
$10.00

Mr. Fudge asks and then gives a very detailed negative answer to the timely question: "Can a Christian Kill for His Government?"

Classic Reprints No. 133
The Life of Zwingli
R. D. C. Robbins
1851, 1852
111 pages
$15.00
Reprinted from Bibliotheca Sacra, this is a four-part article on the life of the famed Swiss reformer Ulrich Zwingli (1484-1581).

Classic Reprints No. 134
Infant Baptism and a Regenerated Church Membership Irreconcilable
W. H. H. Marsh
1872
34 pages
$10.00
Reprinted from Bibliotheca Sacra, this Baptist writer examines the contradictory explanations of pedobaptists regarding the relation which baptized infants sustain to the church.

Classic Reprints No. 135
New Testament Vocabulary
Lemuel S. Potwin
1875, 1876, 1880
69 pages
$10.00
Reprinted from Bibliotheca Sacra, this is a four-part article on the vocabulary of the Greek New Testament. The author examines words in Greek borrowed from Latin, Hebrew, Aramaic, and native words not found in classical authors.

Classic Reprints No. 136
The Relation of Erasmus to the Reformation
Charles A. Nash
1938, 1939
52 pages
$10.00
Reprinted from Bibliotheca Sacra, this is a three-part article on the relation of the celebrated Dutch humanist Erasmus of Rotterdam (1466-1536) to the Reformation.

Classic Reprints No. 137
Do the Scriptures Prohibit the Use of Alcoholic Beverages?
A. B. Rich
1880
78 pages
$10.00
Reprinted from Bibliotheca Sacra, this is a three-part article which examines all of the Hebrew and Greek words in the Bible that relate to wine, new wine, the fruit of the vine, or strong drink. The author answers his title question in the affirmative.

Classic Reprints No. 138
Was the Apostle Paul the Author of the Epistle to the Hebrews?
R. D. C. Robbins
1861
67 pages
$10.00
Reprinted from Bibliotheca Sacra, this is an exhaustive analysis of the question of whether the Apostle Paul authored the Book of Hebrews. The author concludes that Paul did write Hebrews.

Classic Reprints No. 139
Authorship and Canonicity of the Epistle to the Hebrews
J. Henry Thayer
1867
42 pages
$10.00
Reprinted from Bibliotheca Sacra, this is an exhaustive analysis of the questions of the authorship and canonicity of Hebrews by a noted Greek scholar. The author concludes that Paul did not write Hebrews.

Classic Reprints No. 140
Studies in the Syntax of the King James Version
James Moses Grainger
1907
60 pages
$10.00
Originally published as Volume II of Studies in Philology published under the direction of The Philological Club of the University of North Carolina, this is an exhaustive study of the syntax of the King James Version. Covers impersonal constructions, distributive phrasing, do-forms, relative pronouns, and subjunctive mood.

Classic Reprints No. 141
The That-Clause in the Authorized Version of the Bible
Hubert G. Shearin
1910
91 pages
$10.00
Originally published as Volume I in the Transylvania University Studies in English, this is an exhaustive study of that clauses in the Authorized Version. Covers substantive clauses, adjective clauses, and adverbial clauses, plus five appendixes. The author was professor of English philology in Transylvania University.

Classic Reprints No. 142

An Essay upon the Influence of the Translation of the Bible upon English Literature

Lord Kerry

1830

84 pages

$10.00

This essay obtained the annual prize at Trinity College, Cambridge, in 1830.

Classic Reprints No. 143

An Historical View of the English Biblical Translations: The Expediency of Revising by Authority Our Present Translation: and the Means of Executing Such a Revision

William Newcome

1792

470 pages

$50.00

A reprint of a very rare and one of the few eighteenth-century histories of the English Bible by William Newcome, the Bishop of Waterford and member of the Royal Irish Academy.

Classic Reprints No. 144

The Revision of the English Version of the New Testament

J. B. Lightfoot, Richard Chenevix Trench, and C. J. Ellicott, with an Introduction by Philip Schaff

1873

624 pages

$60.00

This is a reprint of a compilation of three important works on English Bible revision undertaken by Philip Schaff in 1873. Professor Lightfoot's On a Fresh Revision of the English New Testament, 2nd ed. (1871), Archbishop Trench's On the Authorized Version of the New Testament in Connection with Some Recent Proposals for Its Revision (1859), and Bishop Ellicott's Considerations on the Revision of the English Version of the New Testament (1870). This work is being reprinted for its historical value rather than in defense of its opinions.

Classic Reprints No. 145

The History of the English Bible: Extending from the Earliest Saxon Translations to the Present Anglo-American Revision; with Special Reference to the Protestant Religion and the English Language

Blackford Condit

1882

469 pages

$50.00

Includes detailed chapters on the Tyndale New Testament, the Coverdale Bible, the Matthew Bible, the Great Bible, the Geneva Bible, the Bishops' Bible, the Douay Rheims Bible, and the Authorized Version. The author states that the book had its origin in the desire to trace the influence of the Bible upon the English language.

Classic Reprints No. 146

The Annals of the English Bible

Christopher Anderson

Two Volume Set

1845

1376 pages

$120.00

A reprint of the author's first edition of the largest and one of the most detailed and comprehensive histories of the English Bible ever written. Includes a lengthy preface and introduction, a very detailed table of contents and index, and a list of various editions of the New Testament and the Bible in English.

Classic Reprints No. 147

History of the English Bible

Henry P. Cameron

1885

192 pages

$20.00

A popular history of the English Bible related "as concisely as possible." The largest chapters are on the Authorized Version and the then-newly published Revised Version.

Classic Reprints No. 148

Editions of the Bible and Parts Thereof in English, from the Year MDV. To MDCCL.

Henry Cotton

Second Edition, Corrected and Enlarged

1852

452 pages

$45.00

A reprint of the most important work on the history of the various editions of the English Bible until the publication of Darlow and Moule's Historical Catalogue in 1903. The author's "object in the present compilation has been, to provide an Appendix to the works of Lewis and subsequent writers on the same subject: by enumerating all the editions, either of the whole Bible or of any detached portions of it, which can now be ascertained, and specifying the public libraries or private collections, in which copies of them may be seen." Includes a lengthy appendix containing specimens of translations and bibliographical descriptions.

Classic Reprints No. 149

English Bible Versions

Henry Barker

1911

383 pages

$40.00

Originally written as a series of articles for the Church Eclectic in 1905-1906, this popular history of English Bible versions "with special reference to the Vulgate, the Douay Bible, and the Authorized and Revised Versions," was first published in 1907. It was then reissued in 1911 as a Tercentenary Memorial of the King James Version by the New York Bible and Common Prayer Book Society. Includes a valuable chapter on the Apocrypha.

Classic Reprints No. 150

The History of the English Bible

John Brown

1911

165 pages

$15.00

Part of the Cambridge Manuals of Science and Literature series, this book was written on the occasion of the tercentenary of the Authorized Version. The history of the English Bible is "the brief repetition of a story beginning in 670 A.D. and reaching on for twelve hundred years to 1870. Includes ten plates reproducing the title pages of various Bibles.

Classic Reprints No. 151

The English Bible: A Sketch of Its History

George Milligan

1895

147 pages

$15.00

A popular history of the English Bible. The author has attempted "to tell the story of our own English version, and to indicate the many ages and workers that have had a share in perfecting it as a translation of the sacred text." Contains two chapters on the Authorized Version.

Classic Reprints No. 152

Rhemes and Doway: An Attempt to Shew What Has Been Done by Roman Catholics for the Diffusion of the Holy Scriptures in English

Henry Cotton

1855

424 pages

$45.00

A reprint of the definitive work on the origin and editions of the Roman Catholic Douay-Rheims Bible. The author's "chief object has been, to ascertain facts;—to supply correct information;—to collect and arrange materials, from which my readers may be enabled to draw their own conclusions, and to pursue the subject, if they choose, to the full extent which its importance may be thought to justify." Cotton sought to "collect material for future use: to lay down a foundation, upon which others may build with safety." Chapters include a chronological list of editions, historical notices, classification of editions, imperfect and unpublished versions, and ecclesiastical approbations, specimens of translation, and collation and description of editions. The book is enhanced by nine appendixes that include the prefaces to various Catholic Bibles.

Classic Reprints No. 153

The Printed English Bible 1525-1885

Richard Lovett

1909

Second Impression

191 pages

$20.00

First published in 1894, the "object of this primer is to set forth briefly the chief facts in the history of the Printed English Bible, so far as they are known at present, and to describe the principal editions." The author believes that a great deal "of what passes for history in current works is partly or wholly fabulous." Three chapters in the book are devoted to the work of William Tindale. Included are portraits of Tindale, Coverdale, and Cromwell, as well as facsimiles of the title pages of various Bibles.

Classic Reprints No. 154

The Authorised Version and the Triumph of the Ornate Style

George Saintsbury

1912

60 pages

$10.00

George Saintsbury (1845-1933) was for twenty years the Professor of Rhetoric and English Literature at Edinburgh. This essay on the "Authorised Version and the Triumph of the Ornate Style" is taken from the author's A History of English Prose Rhythm.

Classic Reprints No. 155

Reasons for Holding Fast the Authorized English Version of the Bible

Alexander McCaul

1857

51 pages

$10.00

The author answers the advocates of revising the Authorized Version. He discusses charges against its chapter and verse divisions, Hebraisms, want of uniformity, obsolete words, translation of "Lord," mistranslations, and Greek text.

Classic Reprints No. 156

Changes in the English Language, between the Publication of Wiclif's Bible and that of the Authorised Version

H. T. W. Wood

1870

76 pages

$10.00

The author views the Bibles of Wycliffe and the Authorized Version as standards of English at their respective dates. He first examines English before Chaucer, then the period from Chaucer to Caxton, and then from Caxton to the Authorized Version. The whole is supplemented by appendixes on English literature 1300-1611, early English Bibles, and the inflectional changes in the verb.

Classic Reprints No. 157

Memoir of the Life and Writings of William Tyndale

George Offor

1836

102 pages

$15.00

This is the introduction to The New Testament of Our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ: Published in 1526. Being the First Translation from the Greek into English, by that Eminent Scholar and Martyr, William Tyndale. Since editions of Tyndale's 1526 and 1534 revised New Testaments are readily available today, just the author's introduction is being reprinted. Includes an image of Tyndale, a memoir of Tyndale, a list of books "either ascribed to Tyndale, or published with his name," and "select collations of the first and second editions of Tyndale's New Testament."

Classic Reprints No. 158

Tyndale's First New Testament

Alfred W. Pollard and Edward Arber

1926, 1871

179 pages

$15.00

The printing in Cologne, Germany, in 1525 of William Tyndale's first English New Testament was interrupted at Matthew 22:12. This "Cologne fragment" was discovered in 1834. It lacks a title page, but contains the prologue and table of contents. The writer and editor Edward Arber (1836-1912) published the whole in 1871, "photo-lithographed from the unique fragment," with a lengthy introduction. The reprint of this work is prefaced by the introduction by Alfred W. Pollard (1859-1944) to the facsimile of the same fragment that he published in 1926. Pollard's introduction includes Matthew chapter 5 in Tyndale's 1535 edition compared with the Authorized Version and four other early English versions.

Classic Reprints No. 159

John De Wycliffe, D.D. A Monograph. With Some Account of the Wycliffe Mss. in Oxford, Cambridge, the British Museum, Lambeth Palace, and Trinity College, Dublin.

Robert Vaughan

1853

609 pages

$60.00

A reprint of one of the oldest and largest biographies of John Wycliffe (1330-1384), the "Morning Star of the Reformation." Includes eight engravings.

Classic Reprints No. 160

The Greek New Testament

Bonaventura and Abraham Elzevir

Second Edition

1633

911 pages

$85.00

A reprint of the second Elzevir edition of the Greek New Testament. It is in the preface to this edition that the phrase "textum ergo habes, nunc ab omnibus receptum" is used, from which is derived the term "textus receptus."

Classic Reprints No. 161

The God of War

Joseph Judson Taylor

1920

255 pages

$35.00

Nineteenth-century Baptist minister Joseph Judson Taylor was an outspoken proponent of the literal interpretation of the Bible and the separation of church and state and opponent of evolution and modernism. He is best known, however, for being a staunch pacifist who was forced to resign his pastorate at the First Baptist Church of Savannah, Georgia in 1917 for vehemently opposing U.S. entry into World War I. His book The God of War traces the folly of war from ancient times to World War I. Taylor's views were considered by some of his fellow ministers to be treason in 1917, but he was vindicated after the war and, after becoming vice-president of the Southern Baptist Convention in 1922, succeeded in getting the Convention to pass a resolution condemning war. Although Taylor and his pacifism have been long forgotten, they are an antidote to the militaristic climate that exists throughout Christendom today.

Classic Reprints No. 162
Ye and You in the King James Version
John S. Kenyon
1914
19 pages
$10.00

Originally published in PMLA, the journal of the Modern Language Association of America, this is a technical study of the usage of Ye and You in various editions of the King James Version by a noted American linguist.

Classic Reprints No. 163
The Postal Power of Congress: A Study in Constitutional Expansion
Lindsay Rogers
1916
191 pages
$20.00

A dissertation submitted in 1915 to the Board of University Studies of The Johns Hopkins University in conformity with the requirements for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy. The author states that his purpose is to “trace the legislative and judicial history of the grant to Congress of the power ‘to establish postoffices and postroads,’ and to discuss the constitutionality of the proposals that, under this clause, federal control may be extended to subjects over which Congress has no direct authority.” A detailed and fascinating study of just how far from the Constitution the country has deviated.

Classic Reprints No. 164
A Short History of the English Bible: With Brief Notices of the Translators
J. M. Freeman
New and Revised Edition
1891
84 pages
$10.00

The author states that the design of his work “is to give, in condensed form, the prominent facts relating to this subject, seeking to point the way to more elaborate works rather than to supersede them.”

Classic Reprints No. 165
Our English Bible
The Religious Tract Society
1848
192 pages
$20.00

The unnamed author states in his preface that “this little Volume supplies a succinct account of English translations and translators, derived from original authorities.” And although he acknowledges that he also wrote the introduction to “Bagster’s Hexapla” on the history of the English Bible, this is “a perfectly distinct and independent work, and contains the result of the Author’s latest researches.”

Classic Reprints No. 166
Notes on the History and Text of Our Early English Bible, and of Its Translation into Welsh
George Leader Owen
1901
80 pages
$10.00

A brief work, but valuable for its thirteen pages on the history of the translation of the Bible into Welsh.

Classic Reprints No. 167
The History of the English Bible
T. Harwood Pattison
1894
297 pages
$35.00

The unique contribution of this work to English Bible history is that it gives the subject a Baptist perspective not commonly found in works of this nature. In addition to giving the history of the early English Bibles, the author also has chapters on “The Bible in English Literature,” “The Bible and the Nation,” and “The Bible and Spiritual Life.”